

Wolchul Mountain Moon Rising Performance

Performance Time : Chuseok (Korean Thanks Giving), Spring, Summer, Winter Performance Programs

Performance Place : Earthenware Museum, Do Gap Sa, Historic Site of Wang In

Performance Content : Korean Traditional Court Music, Traditional Music, Farmer's Music, Traditional Dance

From the past, 'Wolchul Mountain Moon Rising' Performance has been opened in the night on every 15th day of lunar month when the full moon rising at the foot of Wolchul Mountain or Moon Rising Mountain. In the beautiful home land still holding the original view of traditional village where various ceremonial installations and sophisticated Korean traditional mansions of old clan head families containing the scholar's spirit of Joseon era are together along green bamboos and old pine trees and the Korean traditional sentimental and scenery with Historic Site of Wang In Baksa and the thousand year old temple Dogapsa, the superbness of Korean heritage is re-highlighted with performances of rhythms and melodies Korean traditional dancing and music. For each season, Dogapsa, Historic Site of Wang In or Earthenware Museum is selected and Korean Traditional Court Music, Traditional Music, Farmer's Music, Traditional Dance and other materials for the seasonally distinctive natures are performed. The performance is noticed as a unique event for tourists to participate and have fun together.